The Honorable Sheldon Whitehouse

Dear Senator Whitehouse:

Thank you for your letter of June 15, 2017, regarding my use of email while Attorney General of Oklahoma.

In my letter of May 5, 2017, to the Senate Committee on Environment and Public Works, I noted that I used multiple state-provided email accounts to conduct business while serving as the Attorney General of Oklahoma. As also noted in that letter, all of my personal and state emails are available to the Oklahoma Attorney General's office as it continues to respond to Oklahoma Open Records Act requests.

Regarding my current email addresses, the Agency maintains a primary email account to contact me: pruitt.scott@epa.gov. EPA staff has also established secondary accounts in the Agency's Outlook email system that are used for calendaring, scheduling, and communications. Information from these accounts may be requested pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act.

If you have further questions, please contact me or your staff may contact Troy Lyons in the EPA's Office of Congressional and Intergovernmental Relations at (202) 564-4987 or Lyons.Troy@epa.gov.

Respectfully yours,
